NOBEL PEACE LAUREATES MENTORING YOUTH TO CHANGE THE WORLD

Who We Are

With 20 years of experience worldwide, the PeaceJam Foundation is the global leader in developing youth and adult leaders engaged in their communities. We accomplish this mission through partnership with 13 Nobel Peace Prize winners, including the Dalai Lama and Desmond Tutu, and award-winning service-learning curriculum.

COMPONENTS OF A PEACEJAM CONFERENCE

Keynote Address by a Nobel Laureate

In 1992, Ebadi acquired her lawyer's license and established her own practice. She prioritized cases that involved the unfair treatment of women and children. Ebadi became one of the most well-known lawyers in Iran and defended the families of serial murder victims and child abuse victims. Ebadi has lived in exile in the United Kingdom since June 2009 because of death threats from the Iranian government. She continues to work for human rights around the world. Ebadi has been a member of PeaceJam since 2004.

Family Groups & Mentors

University students are trained to mentor younger students and lead small reflection groups where students debrief the social justice issues discussed during PeaceJam Conferences.

Service Projects & Workshops

Preparing students to be change-makers through high-quality volunteer projects and engaging workshops that teach 21st century skills.

Student Presentations

Students engage in service-learning curriculum and create projects for social good, and then share their projects and passions with the Laureate.

Ceremony of Inspiration

A powerful session where the Laureate shares what inspires them to continue their work in the face of very difficult challenges and then invites students to come on stage and share what inspires them.

The Jam

Students have the opportunity to experience laureate culture through music, dance and performance.

One Billion Acts of Peace

A global citizens' campaign led by PeaceJam's 13 Laureates and students to engage the world to address the most pressing issues facing our planet.
